

Tales of the Mushroom People II

Call of Cthulhushroom
by the Keffer Family

The Mushroom People Are Back!

Call of Cthulhushroom is the second entry in a series of illustrated stories for children and adventurous adults. This Lovecraft-inspired volume recounts the arrival in the forest of Cthulhushroom, an Elder God of the Mushroom People. A forest ghost seeks to enlist the aid of various denizens dwelling within the woods in order to rid their home of Cthulhushroom. Eventually, Poison Pie, hero of the Mushroom People, leads an army in a ferocious showdown with Cthulhushroom. The story is told with felt fingerpuppets and photographs from East Tennessee.

About the Authors

David, Lynn, Ruth & Joseph Keffer are a family living in East Tennessee. For this book, they traveled to wild places and took pictures. On rainy days, they stayed home and made felt fingerpuppets. In between they dreamt up this story, their second illustrated story published by Poison Pie Publishing House.
