The Poison Pie Fingerpuppets Embark on an Epic Adventure!

The Mushroomnomicon is an ancient tome of the Cult of the Mushroom, containing secrets of the fungal universe beyond the comprehension of mortal men. Herein, the tale is related of how the Mushroomnomicon was stolen by agents of the ancient Dragon of the White Wasteland and how a brave group of adventurers sought to retrieve the book and return it to a safe place, where its mycological secrets could do no harm.

The story is told with felt fingerpuppets and photographs from wild places in East Tennessee and North Carolina. It is intended for both children and particularly adventurous adults.

About the Authors

David, Lynn, Ruth & Joseph Keffer are a family living in East Tennessee. For this book, they traveled to wild places and took pictures. On rainy days, they stayed home and made felt fingerpuppets. In between they dreamt up this their third illustrated story published by Poison Pie Publishing House.
