Each of the three-hundred sixty-five passages in this book was written in its entirety to the accompaniment of a recording of a particular piece of music. The work is identified at the end of each passage. The process of “writing as listening” admits the embodied cognition in the music. Furthermore, as the American pianist Vijay Iyer has noted, “[M]usic can be viewed as a consequence of active listening...Placing the skillful listener in such an active role explodes the category of experiences that we call listening to music...”

An index of musicians appears at the end of the book, as do several other related indices.

About the Creators

It can be said that the fruiting body of Hebeloma Crustuliniforme sprouted from an extensive subterranean network in response to a spring rain, sometime during the last quarter of the twentieth century. She pursued an eclectic education, typically outside the institutional credentialing process. She has worked in Europe and America as an anthropologist and as an editor. She currently serves as the Editor-in-Chief of the International Journal of Exploratory Meta-Living and occupies a similar role at the Poison Pie Publishing House.

Her interest in a literature of non-idiomatic improvisation arose naturally from her study of apophenia, the human perception of patterns and intent in random or meaningless data. There is a great joy to be discovered in what others might regard as a deep self-delusion. Hebeloma asks the readers' indulgence to allow her to share that joy.

Julia K. Keffer is the creative force behind the Bus Stop Art Show of Phoenix, Arizona. The Bus Stop Art Show embraces the ephemerality of art and its unknowable impacts through the unsanctioned placement of artwork in public spaces. The dismantling of the art is an invited act inseparably entwined with the self-selecting distribution of the works by passers-by who discover something that appeals to them and who take a piece with them.

The twelve works, one appearing at the beginning of each chapter of the Clockwise Cadenza, are portraits of characters and scenes, informed by descriptions within the score. No further instructions were necessary.
