Eugenia was the greatest sorceress of our age, though she took pains to make sure that no one knew of it. Her mission was simply stated, though not too easy to accomplish, to reduce the sum total of misery on planet Earth. To aid her in this endeavor was her comrade in arms, Alton, a reluctant zombie, unwilling to come to terms with either his death or his undying love for Eugenia.

In this second volume of stories, they must first reconcile their differences after Alton returns from being banished by Eugenia to the World of Jello. Engaged in an unstable truce, they undertake their most ambitious endeavor to date, a daring strike at the very wellspring of human misery. To do so, they must enlist the aid of a variety of unusual accomplices, including none other than Poison Pie, Man of the Mushroom People.

This volume includes the stories, "Myanthropy", "The Sound Effects of a Successful Hug", "The Somnambulist vs. the Somniloquist" and "Californium-252, Here We Come". This book was thought to be a last look at Alton and Eugenia before they unexpectedly turned up again a decade later in The Horties.
